Dear Neighbor:

The City of East Palo Alto, East Palo Alto Community Alliance and Neighborhood Development Organization (EPA CAN DO) and Community Legal Services of East Palo Alto will provide a FREE Foreclosure Prevention Workshop in East Palo Alto for homeowners who are in or near foreclosure. EPA CAN DO has received funding from the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) to offer foreclosure intervention counseling to residents in San Mateo County and southern Alameda County.

The workshop will take place at Faith Missionary Baptist Church located at 835 Runnymede Street, East Palo Alto on Saturday, February 28, 2009 from 1:00 p.m. and continuing until 4:00 p.m. The purpose of the workshop is to assist homeowners in preserving their home. The workshop will focus on different issues pertaining to foreclosure such as:

- Realities of the current real estate market
- Working with your lender to modify your loan
- Legal issues in foreclosure
- Rebuilding post foreclosure credit

This workshop is part of a county wide effort to bring vital information to the communities that have been most affected by the current mortgage foreclosure crisis. People leaving the workshop will have a better understanding of their rights under current foreclosure law and what recourse they have as a homeowner. Please see the enclosed flyer for more information. To RSVP, please call EPA CAN DO at (650) 473-9838.

Sincerely,

Robert Jones
